

Table of Contents

Page:

Chapter 1

The Nature, Purpose, and Structure of the Manual 1

§ 1.01 The Nature and Purpose of the Manual. 1

§ 1.02 The Structure of the Manual. 1

§ 1.03 Caveat — The Uniqueness of Cases. 2

§ 1.04 A Second Caveat — The Need for a Pro. 2

Chapter 2

Introduction to Delinquency Practice: The Role of Defense Counsel 4

§ 2.01 Overview of the Chronology of a Delinquency Case. 4

§ 2.01(a) First Stage: Representation of Clients Prior to the Initial Hearing. 4

§ 2.01(b) The Initial Hearing. 4

§ 2.01(c) Preparation of the Case for Trial. 5

§ 2.01(d) The Alternative Courses of Action That Can Remove a Case from the Trial Calendar. 5

§ 2.01(e) Filing of Motions and the Motions Hearing. 6

§ 2.01(f) The Trial. 7

§ 2.01(g) Disposition. 7

§ 2.01(h) Appeal and Post-Disposition Proceedings. 8

§ 2.02 Juvenile Court Terminology. 8

§ 2.03 The Role of Defense Counsel in a Delinquency Case. 9

§ 2.04 The Importance of Watching for Opportunities to Make Arguments
Based on the Unique Nature of the Juvenile Court System or the

Unique Nature of Adolescence.	14
§ 2.04(a) Challenging Aspects of State or Local Procedure as Inconsistent with the Essence of the Juvenile Court System.	14
§ 2.04(b) Using Social Scientific Literature About the Nature of Adolescence to Argue that Juveniles are Entitled to More Protective Standards than Adult Criminal Defendants.	15

Chapter 3

Representing Clients Before Initial Hearing; Steps To Take if a Client Is at the Police Station or Is “Wanted” by the Police.

18

Part A. Introduction

§ 3.01 Stages at Which the Lawyer May Enter the Case.	18
§ 3.02 General Approach in Entering a Case: The Need to Move Quickly.	18

Part B. Overview of the Initial Stages of the Juvenile Justice Process

§ 3.03 Arrest.	19
§ 3.04 Police Practices Following Arrest – Logging-In.	19
§ 3.05 Interrogation and Other Investigative Procedures.	20
§ 3.06 Police Notification of the Respondent’s Parent(s).	21
§ 3.07 Police Exercise of Discretion Whether to Charge the Respondent.	23
§ 3.08 Booking or Slating.	24
§ 3.09 Fingerprinting and Photographing.	25
§ 3.10 Police Decision Whether to Detain the Respondent Pending Arraignment.	25
§ 3.11 Alleged Delinquents Detained by the Police Pending Arraignment: Transportation to the Juvenile Detention Facility and the De Novo Judgment on Detention or Release by Facility Staff.	26
§ 3.12 The Probation Intake Process.	27

Part C. Representing Juveniles Who Have Just Been Arrested and Are Still at the Stationhouse or Holding Facility: Dealing with the Police and Other Damage Control

§ 3.13	The Telephone Call from a Parent of a Child Who Has Just Been Arrested and Is Still at the Stationhouse.....	29
§ 3.14	Locating a Client Who Was Recently Arrested.....	30
§ 3.15	Keeping Records of Calls to Police Officers.....	31
§ 3.16	Calls from a Client Who Is in Police Custody.....	31
§ 3.17	Overview of the Steps to Be Taken After Counsel Has Succeeded in Locating the Recently Arrested Client.....	32
§ 3.18	Gaining Immediate Access to the Client: Persuading Police Officers to Allow Counsel to Speak with a Recently Arrested Client on the Telephone.....	34
§ 3.19	The Telephone Conversation with the Client Who Is Presently in the Custody of the Police.....	35
§ 3.19(a)	Preliminary Matters To Discuss with the Client.....	35
§ 3.19(b)	Advising the Client: Protecting the Client from Interrogation... ..	36
§ 3.19(c)	Cautioning the Client Against Speaking with Cellmates or Visitors.....	38
§ 3.19(d)	Other Advice To Give the Client: Protections Against Lineups, Show-Ups, and Other Police Investigative Procedures.....	38
§ 3.19(e)	Eliciting Information from the Client That Will Be Useful in Attempting To Secure the Client’s Release.....	40
§ 3.19(f)	Concluding the Telephone Conversation with the Client in Police Custody.....	41
§ 3.20	Telephone Conversations with the Police on Behalf of a Client Who Is Presently in Police Custody.....	43
§ 3.21	Follow-up Conversation with the Parent or Guardian of the Client.....	46

§ 3.22	Counsel’s Activities on the Client’s Behalf at the Police Station.	48
§ 3.22(a)	Gaining Access to the Client.	48
§ 3.22(b)	Matters to Cover in the Interview with the Client.	49
§ 3.22(c)	Discussions with the Police.	50
§ 3.22(d)	Actions for Counsel to Take in Identification or Examination Procedures.	51
§ 3.23	Actions That Can Be Taken to Protect the Client’s Rights in Lieu of a Trip to the Police Station.	53
§ 3.24	Acting on Behalf of Clients Who Have Been Moved from the Police Station to a Juvenile Detention Facility Pending Initial Hearing.	54
§ 3.25	Final Steps to Take on Behalf of the Newly Arrested Client in Custody Pending Arraignment.	56

Part D. Entering the Case at the Probation Intake Stage: Representing Children Who Were Released After Arrest and Have Not Yet Gone Through Probation Intake

§ 3.26	Overview of the Role That the Attorney Potentially Can Play in the Probation Intake Process.	57
§ 3.27	Counseling the Child and Parent/Guardian to Prepare Them for the Probation Intake Interviews.	57
§ 3.28	The Attorney’s Opportunities for Direct Involvement in the Probation Intake Process.	58

Part E. The “Wanted” Client: Representing Children Who Have Not Yet Been Arrested But Who Are Being Sought by the Police

§ 3.29	The Initial Phone Call from the “Wanted” Client or from Someone Concerned about the Client.	60
§ 3.30	Making Inquiries of the Police and Prosecutor.	61
§ 3.31	The Follow-Up Conversation with the Client: Counseling the Client on the Advisability of Surrender.	63

§ 3.32 Arranging the Surrender.....	64
§ 3.33 The Surrender and Subsequent Aspects of the Case.	65

Chapter 4

The Initial Hearing: Prehearing Interview; Arraignment; Pretrial Detention Arguments; Probable-Cause Hearing.....	66
--	-----------

Part A. Introduction

§ 4.01 The Nature of the Initial Hearing; Scope of the Chapter; Terminology.	66
§ 4.02 Coping with the Idiosyncrasies of Initial Hearings: Rushed Proceedings and Juvenile Court Parlance.....	67

Part B. Appointment of Counsel

§ 4.03 The Right to Counsel at Initial Hearing.....	67
§ 4.04 The Mechanisms for Appointing Counsel or Arranging for the Presence of Retained Counsel at Initial Hearing.....	69
§ 4.05 Waiver of the Right to Counsel.	71

Part C. Pre-Hearing Interview of the Client and Parent, and Other Necessary Preparation for the Initial Hearing

§ 4.06 Insisting upon an Opportunity to Conduct a Pre-Hearing Interview When Counsel Is Retained or Appointed Immediately Before the Hearing.....	75
§ 4.07 The Information That Needs to Be Elicited from the Client in Order to Prepare for the Initial Hearing.	77
§ 4.07(a) Information To Elicit in Preparation for the Detention Hearing.....	77
§ 4.07(b) Information To Elicit in Preparation for the Probable-Cause Determination.	79
§ 4.07(c) Other Subjects To Cover in the Initial Interview.....	80

§ 4.08 Interview of the Client’s Parent or Guardian to Gather Information
---	--

Relevant to the Detention Determination.	80
§ 4.09 Telephone Calls to Make in Preparation for the Initial Hearing.	81
§ 4.10 Examination of the Child’s Prior Record Before the Initial Hearing.. . . .	82
§ 4.11 Ascertaining the Positions of the Probation Officer and Prosecutor, and Lobbying to Change Unfavorable Positions.	83
Part D. Arraignment
§ 4.12 Notification of the Charges.	84
§ 4.13 The Respondent’s Entry of a Plea.	85
§ 4.14 Setting the Trial Date and Deadlines for Motions and Special Defensive Pleas.	85
Part E. Pretrial Detention and Bail
§ 4.15 Introduction: Pretrial Detention and Bail in Juvenile Court.	87
§ 4.16 The Fundamental Importance of Securing the Child’s Release at the Detention Hearing.	88
§ 4.17 Statutory and Caselaw Standards for the Detention Determination.. . . .	89
§ 4.18 Possible Places of Detention.	91
§ 4.19 The Detention Hearing: Procedure.	93
§ 4.20 Preventing or Objecting to Any Mention of Prior Charges That Have Been Nulled, Dismissed, or Sealed.	94
§ 4.21 Defense Arguments for Release of the Respondent.. . . .	95
§ 4.21(a) Arguments Relating to the “Risk of Flight”.. . . .	96
§ 4.21(b) Arguments Relating to Future Dangerousness.. . . .	97
§ 4.21(b)(1) Arguments Concerning the Prior Record of the Child.. . .	97
§ 4.21(b)(2) Arguments Concerning the School Performance of the Child.	97

§ 4.21(b)(3)	Arguments Concerning Curfew.	98
§ 4.21(b)(4)	Arguments Concerning Psychological or Substance Abuse Problems.	98
§ 4.21(c)	Arguments Relating to the Respondent’s Danger to Himself or Herself.	98
§ 4.21(d)	Arguments Applicable to All of the Bases for Detention.	98
§ 4.21(d)(1)	Arguments Citing Aspects of the Child’s Life That Have Changed or Will Change in the Near Future.	98
§ 4.21(d)(2)	Arguments Based upon the Inappropriateness of the Detention Facilities for the Particular Respondent.	99
§ 4.21(d)(3)	Argument That Detention of the Respondent Would Unfairly Impede Counsel’s Pretrial Investigation of the Case.	99
§ 4.21(e)	Fallback Requests for a Result Short of Outright Release.	100
§ 4.22	Using the Probable-Cause Hearing to Prevent Detention.	101
§ 4.23	Preventing Detention by Attacking the Sufficiency of the Petition.	101
§ 4.24	Steps to Take If the Client Is Detained.	102
§ 4.25	Obtaining Relief for Clients Whose Initial Hearing Has Not Been Held Promptly.	102
§ 4.26	Additional Detention Issues Arising from Other Charges or Other Legal Problems Within the Jurisdiction, in Other Parts of the State, or in Other States.	103
§ 4.26(a)	Ancillary Legal Problems Within the State in Which the Respondent Is Appearing for the Detention Hearing.	104
§ 4.26(a)(1)	Custody Orders To Arrest the Respondent on Another Charge.	104

§ 4.26(a)(2)	Custody Orders Resulting from Prior Failures To Appear for Court Hearings.	104
§ 4.26(a)(3)	Petitions To Revoke Probation or Parole in Light of the Violation of Law Evidenced by the New Arrest.	105
§ 4.26(b)	Extradition to Another State: The Interstate Compact.	105
§ 4.26(c)	Arranging for Counsel in the Respondent’s Other Cases.	107
§ 4.27	Bail.	108
§ 4.27(a)	Interviewing the Client and Parent/Guardian To Elicit the Information Necessary To Argue the Issue of Bail.	108
§ 4.27(b)	Arguing the Availability of Bail: Interaction Between Preventive Detention and Statutory Rights to Bail.	108
§ 4.27(c)	Arguing Against High Bail: The Constitutional Prohibitions Against “Excessive” Bail; Equal Protection Issues in Cases of Indigent Clients.	109
§ 4.27(d)	Arguing for the Least Onerous Type of Bail.	110
§ 4.27(e)	Ensuring That There Are No “Hold” Orders Before Permitting the Client’s Family or Friends To Post Bail.	111
§ 4.27(f)	Assisting the Client’s Family or Friends in Posting Bond.	112
Part F. The Probable-Cause Hearing
§ 4.28	Constitutional and Statutory Rights to a Probable-Cause Determination.	112
§ 4.28(a)	Constitutional Requirements.	113
§ 4.28(b)	Statutory Requirements.	117
§ 4.29	The Functions of the Probable-Cause Hearing from the Defense Perspective.	118
§ 4.30	The Decision Whether to Demand or Waive the Probable-Cause Hearing.	119
§ 4.31	Nature of the Probable-Cause Hearing; Defense Rights at the Hearing.	121

§ 4.31(a)	Nature of the Proceedings.	121
§ 4.31(b)	Right to Counsel.	121
§ 4.31(c)	Right To Cross-Examine Prosecution Witnesses and To Present Defense Witnesses; Right To Subpoena Witnesses; Right to Disclosure of Exculpatory and Impeaching Evidence	121
§ 4.31(d)	Right to Transcription of the Proceedings.	124
§ 4.31(e)	Procedures To Challenge Denial of Rights to or at a Probable- Cause Hearing.	124
§ 4.31(f)	Restrictions on Prosecution Evidence.	125
§ 4.32	Defensive Conduct of the Probable-Cause Hearing – Cross-Examining for Discovery and Impeachment.	127
§ 4.33	Resisting Limitations on Cross-Examination.	128
§ 4.34	Calling Adverse Witnesses.	129
§ 4.35	Calling Favorable Defense Witnesses.	130
§ 4.36	Objecting to Inadmissible Evidence.	131
§ 4.37	Obtaining a Transcript.	131
§ 4.38	Continuances.	132

Chapter 5

The Client Interview.	134
§ 5.01 Introduction: Scope of the Chapter; Overview of the Chronology of an Initial Interview.	134
§ 5.02 Preparing for the Interview.	135
§ 5.03 The Introductory Phase: Explaining to the Family the Need for Counsel’s Meeting with the Client Alone.	135
§ 5.03(a) The Reasons for Meeting with the Client Alone.	135

§ 5.03(b)	Explaining to Parents Why They Should Absent Themselves from the Interview.	136
§ 5.04	Commencing the Private Interview of the Client: Establishing Rapport, Explaining the Attorney-Client Privilege, and Other Preliminary Matters.	137
§ 5.04(a)	The Importance of Establishing a Good Attorney-Client Relationship.	137
§ 5.04(b)	Putting the Client at Ease and Establishing a Relationship of Trust.	137
§ 5.04(c)	Giving the Client a Business Card.	139
§ 5.04(d)	Explaining the Attorney-Client Relationship.	139
§ 5.04(e)	Settling the Roles of Attorney and Client and Explaining the Need for a Truthful Rendition of the Facts.	140
§ 5.05	Note-Taking During the Interview: Explaining the Need for Taking Notes; Techniques for Taking Notes in the Least Disruptive Manner.	141
§ 5.06	Interviewing the Client About the Facts of the Offense.	143
§ 5.07	Interviewing the Client About Facts Needed for Suppression Motions.	145
§ 5.08	Interviewing the Client About His or Her Social History.	146
§ 5.09	Complaints of Brutality or Mistreatment; Other Custodial Complaints.	146
§ 5.10	Concluding the Private Interview of the Client.	159
§ 5.11	The Final Stage of the Interview: The Discussion with the Client and His or Her Parent(s); Fee-Setting; Obtaining Releases of Information.	162
§ 5.12	Subsequent Interviews with the Client.	164
§ 5.13	Interview Checklist.	165
 Chapter 6
	Case Planning: Deciding What Things To Do To Prepare for Trial and the Order in Which To Do Them.	191

§ 6.01	Scope and Purpose of this Chapter.	192
§ 6.02	The Defense “Theory of the Case”: A Flexible Blueprint for Trial Preparation.	192
§ 6.02(a)	Defense Theories That Refute the Prosecution’s Assertion That a Crime Was Committed.	192
§ 6.02(b)	Defense Theories That Refute the Prosecution’s Assertion That the Respondent Was the Perpetrator.	194
§ 6.02(c)	The Building Blocks for Constructing a Defense Theory of the Case.	197
§ 6.02(d)	Implications of the Choice of Defense Theory for Trial Preparation.	199
§ 6.03	Gathering the Facts Needed to Support the Defense Theory of the Case.	200
§ 6.04	Filing Motions That Are Consistent with the Theory of the Case.	202
§ 6.05	Setting in Motion the Process Needed to Prepare for Disposition in the Event of Conviction.	202
§ 6.06	the Role of Narrative Theory in Case Planning.	203
§ 6.06(a)	The Nature of Narrative and Its Importance in Litigation.	203
§ 6.06(b)	The Specific Uses that a Litigator Can Make of Narrative.	206
§ 6.06(c)	The Basic Structure and Process of Narrative.	210
§ 6.06(d)	The Special Features of Narrative in a Jury-Trial Setting.	212
§ 6.07	Methods of Maximizing the Time Available For, and the Effectiveness of, Case Preparation in Public Defender Offices in Which Caseloads Are Prohibitively High.	213

Chapter 7

Selecting and Drafting Motions: Strategic and Practical Considerations. 218

§ 7.01	The Importance of Motions Practice; The Objectives to Be Sought.	218
--------	--	-----

§ 7.02	The Motions That Counsel Should Consider.....	218
§ 7.03	Deciding Whether to Raise an Issue in a Pretrial Motion or at Trial.....	221
§ 7.03(a)	Reasons for Litigating an Issue by Pretrial Motion.	222
§ 7.03(b)	Reasons for Litigating an Issue at Trial Rather Than in a Pretrial Motions Forum.	223
§ 7.03(c)	Casting the Issue in the Form of a Pretrial Motion When the Pretrial Forum Is Preferable.....	224
§ 7.04	Choosing Between Oral and Written Motions.....	226
§ 7.05	Timely Filing of the Motion: Methods for Extending the Filing Deadline and for Obtaining Relief from Forfeitures Entailed as a Consequence of Untimely Filing.	226
§ 7.06	The Form of the Motion; The Need for Affidavits.	228
§ 7.07	Deciding Whether to Seek an Evidentiary Hearing for Claims That Can Be Proven with Affidavits Alone.....	229
§ 7.08	Drafting the Motion so as to Gain Relief Without Unduly Disclosing the Defense Case.	230
§ 7.09	Invocation of State Constitutional Provisions in the Motion.....	231
Chapter 8
Defense Investigation.....		235
	Part A. General Aspects of Defense Investigation
§ 8.01	Introduction: Scope of the Chapter.	235
§ 8.02	Using the Defense Theory of the Case to Guide the Investigation.	236
§ 8.03	Starting Promptly and Preserving Perishable Evidence.....	237
§ 8.04	Use of an Investigator.	240
§ 8.05	The Importance of Personally Observing the Scene of the Crime and Other Relevant Sites.....	241

Part B. Locating and Interviewing Defense Witnesses

§ 8.06	The Need to Interview Any Witnesses Whom the Respondent Wishes to Call.	242
§ 8.07	Locating Witnesses.	242
§ 8.08	Keeping Track of Witnesses.	244
§ 8.09	Interviewing Defense Witnesses.	244
§ 8.10	Refraining from Taking Written Statements of Defense Witnesses or Taking Verbatim Interview Notes in Jurisdictions Where They Are Discoverable by the Prosecution.	246

Part C. Interviewing and Taking Statements from Adverse Witnesses

§ 8.11	The Unique Aspects of Interviewing Adverse Witnesses.	247
§ 8.12	Taking Statements from Adverse Witnesses.	247
§ 8.12(a)	The Reasons for Taking Statements.	247
§ 8.12(b)	Arranging To Be Accompanied to Interviews of Adverse Witnesses.	248
§ 8.12(c)	Techniques for Taking a Written Statement; Content of the Statement.	248
§ 8.12(d)	Alternatives to a Signed Statement When the Witness Is Unwilling To Sign a Statement; Taking a Recorded Statement.	250
§ 8.13	Overcoming Prosecution Witnesses' Unwillingness to Talk with an Adversary; Steps to Take If the Witness Says That S/he Has Been Advised by the Prosecutor to Refuse to Talk with the Defense.	251
§ 8.14	Interviewing Police Officers.	255
§ 8.15	Interviewing Co-Respondents and Adult Defendants Charged with the Same or Connected Crimes.	256

Part D. Gathering Police Reports, Other Documents, and Physical Evidence That May Be

Needed as Defense Exhibits at a Motions Hearing or at Trial

§ 8.16 The Need to Gather the Materials, and the Timetable. 257

§ 8.17 Methods for Gathering the Materials. 259

§ 8.18 Preserving Real Evidence. 259

§ 8.19 Types of Materials to Gather or Generate. 261

Chapter 9

Pretrial Discovery. 271

Part A. Introduction

§ 9.01 The Nature of Discovery in Delinquency Cases; Scope and Organization of the Chapter. 271

§ 9.02 The General Position of the Defense on Discovery. 272

§ 9.03 The Advisability of Pursuing Informal Discovery Methods Before Resorting to Formal Discovery Devices. 274

Part B. Informal Discovery

§ 9.04 Designing a Strategy for Informal Discovery. 275

§ 9.05 The Discovery Letter. 275

§ 9.06 The Discovery Conference. 278

Part C. Formal Discovery: Mechanisms and Legal Bases

§ 9.07 Types of Formal Discovery Procedures. 280

 § 9.07(a) Motion for a Bill of Particulars. 283

 § 9.07(b) Motion for a List of Prosecution Witnesses. 287

 § 9.07(c) Discovery Motions. 289

 § 9.07(d) Other Discovery-Related Motions. 296

§ 9.07(e)	Depositions.	297
§ 9.07(f)	Freedom of Information Laws (FOILs).	299
§ 9.08	General Strategy When Employing Formal Discovery Procedures.	300
§ 9.09	Constitutional Doctrines That Can Be Invoked in Support of Defense Discovery.	301
§ 9.09(a)	The Brady Doctrine: The Right to Prosecutorial Disclosure of Evidence Helpful to the Defense.	302
§ 9.09(b)	Other Bases for Constitutional Contentions of Rights to Discovery.	318
§ 9.09(b)(1)	The Sixth Amendment Right to Counsel.	318
§ 9.09(b)(2)	The Right to Fair Notice of Charges.	319
§ 9.09(b)(3)	The Sixth Amendment Right to Confrontation.	320
§ 9.09(b)(4)	The Right To Present Defensive Evidence.	322
§ 9.09(b)(5)	The Right Against Prosecutorial Fabrication of False Incriminating Evidence or Concealment of Evidence That Impeaches Prosecution Testimony.	324
§ 9.09(b)(6)	The Right Against Prosecutorial Suppression of Evidence Favorable to the Defense.	329
§ 9.09(b)(7)	The Right Against an Unfair Balance of Advantage Favoring the Prosecution.	331
§ 9.09(b)(8)	The Obligation of the Equal Protection Clause That a State Not Permit an Indigent Respondent To Be Deprived of “The Basic Tools of an Adequate Defense” by Reason of Poverty.	335
§ 9.10	Responses to Prosecutorial Assertions That the Information That the Defense Is Seeking Is Privileged.	336
§ 9.10(a)	The “Informer’s Privilege” and the Surveillance Location Privilege.	336

§ 9.10(b)	Work Product.....	340
§ 9.10(c)	Other Claims of Governmental Privilege.....	340

Part D. Discovery by the Prosecution Against the Defense

§ 9.11	The Prosecution’s Right to Discovery.....	341
§ 9.12	Fifth Amendment Limitations upon Prosecutorial Discovery.....	341
§ 9.13	“Work Product” Protections Against Prosecutorial Discovery.....	347

Chapter 10

Preparing for a Motions Hearing or Trial: Selecting, Subpoenaing and Preparing Defense Witnesses; Preparing Real or Demonstrative Evidence. 352

Part A. Selecting and Subpoenaing Witnesses

§ 10.01	Selection of Witnesses for a Motions Hearing or Trial.....	352
§ 10.02	The Need to Subpoena Defense Witnesses and Keep Track of Them Until the Trial Date.	352
§ 10.03	Types of Subpoenas; Persons Subject to Subpoena.....	354
§ 10.04	Procedures for Obtaining Subpoenas.....	355
§ 10.05	Right to Process at Public Expense When the Respondent Is Indigent..	355
§ 10.06	Mechanics of Serving Subpoenas.	356
§ 10.07	Remedies If a Subpoenaed Witness Fails to Appear.....	357
§ 10.08	Special Aspects of Subpoena Practice Necessitated by the Missing-Witness Doctrine.	358
§ 10.08(a)	The Missing-Witness Doctrine.	358
§ 10.08(b)	Subpoenaing Defense Witnesses To Avoid a Missing-Witness Inference Against the Defense.....	360
§ 10.08(c)	Laying a Foundation for a Missing-Witness Inference

	Against the Prosecution.	361
	Part B. Preparing Defense Witnesses To Testify
§ 10.09	Techniques of Witness Preparation.	362
	§ 10.09(a) Reviewing the Facts and Trial Procedure with the Witness.	362
	§ 10.09(b) Instructions to the Witness About Demeanor and Dress.	363
	§ 10.09(c) The Dry Run of the Witness’s Testimony.	363
	§ 10.09(d) Preparing the Witness for Cross-Examination by the Prosecutor.	365
	§ 10.09(e) Refraining from Taking Notes or Written Statements from the Witness.	367
§ 10.10	Preparing the Respondent to Testify; Conferring with the Respondent about Trial Strategy.	367
§ 10.11	The Respondent’s Dress for Trial.	370
§ 10.12	Co-Respondents and Accomplices.	370
	Part C. Preparing Real or Demonstrative Evidence for Use at a Suppression Hearing or Trial
§ 10.13	General Considerations in Preparing and Presenting Real and Demonstrative Evidence.	370
§ 10.14	Real Evidence.	372
	§ 10.14(a) Preserving Physical Evidence for Use at Trial or a Pretrial Hearing.	372
	§ 10.14(b) Photographs of the Crime Scene or Other Relevant Sites or Objects.	372
	§ 10.14(c) Authentication.	372
	§ 10.14(d) Other Potential Evidentiary Impediments.	377
§ 10.15	Demonstrative Evidence.	378

Chapter 11

Retaining and Working with Expert Consultants and Potential Expert Witnesses. 379

§ 11.01 Deciding Whether to Retain an Expert. 379

 § 11.01(a) The Wide Range of Possible Experts to Consider in a Juvenile Delinquency Case. 379

 § 11.01(b) The Wide Range of Possible Functions for a Defense Expert in a Juvenile Delinquency Case. 380

§ 11.02 Selecting an Expert. 386

§ 11.03 Obtaining State Funding for the Expert When the Client Is Indigent. . . 387

 § 11.03(a) Constitutional Rights to State-Paid Expert Assistance. 387

 § 11.03(b) Procedures for Obtaining State Funds for an Expert. 392

§ 11.04 Working with the Expert During the Pretrial Stage. 396

 § 11.04(a) Working with an Expert Consultant to Prepare the Case. 396

 § 11.04(b) Expert Witnesses. 397

 § 11.04(b)(1) Obtaining a Written Report from the Expert for Use at a Pretrial Hearing or Trial. 397

 § 11.04(b)(2) Preparing the Expert to Testify. 398

Chapter 12

Representing Clients Who Are Mentally Ill or Intellectually Disabled. 399

Part A. Overview: Stages at Which the Respondent’s Mental Problems May Be Relevant

§ 12.01 The Initial Interview and Subsequent Client Counseling. 399

§ 12.02 The Initial Hearing. 400

§ 12.03 The Investigative Stage. 401

§ 12.04 Pretrial Motions and Other Pretrial Pleadings. 402

§ 12.05	Plea Negotiations with the Prosecutor.	402
§ 12.06	Trial.	403
§ 12.07	Disposition.	403

Part B. Retention of a Defense Psychiatrist or Psychologist

§ 12.08	Reasons for Retaining a Mental Health Expert: The Many Functions a Defense Expert Can Perform in a Delinquency Case.	404
§ 12.08(a)	Using a Mental Health Expert as a Witness at a Pretrial Hearing or Trial.	404
§ 12.08(b)	Potential Functions of a Mental Health Expert Other Than Testifying at a Pretrial Hearing or Trial.	405
§ 12.09	Retaining a Mental Health Expert.	407
§ 12.10	Selecting the Mental Health Expert: Choosing Between Psychiatrists and Psychologists; Choosing Among Specialties.	409

Part C. Mental Health Examinations

§ 12.11	The Judicial Power to Order a Mental Health Examination.	411
§ 12.12	Why Defense Counsel Should Ordinarily Oppose a Mental Health Examination.	411
§ 12.13	Arguments That Can Be Used in Opposing a Mental Health Examination.	413
§ 12.14	Arguments That Can Be Used in Opposing an Order That a Mental Health Examination Be Conducted on an In-Patient Basis.	414
§ 12.15	Procedural Protections at a Mental Health Examination.	416
§ 12.15(a)	Fifth and Sixth Amendment Protections.	416
§ 12.15(b)	State Law Prohibitions Against Using Statements Made During a Mental Health Examination as Proof of Guilt at Trial.	423

Part D. Incompetency to Stand Trial

§ 12.16	Applicability of the Doctrine of Incompetency in Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings.....	424
§ 12.17	Standard for Determining Competency.....	424
§ 12.18	Results of a Finding of Incompetency.....	428
§ 12.19	Strategic Considerations in Deciding Whether to Raise a Claim of Incompetency.....	431
§ 12.19(a)	The General Inadvisability of Raising a Claim of Incompetency in a Juvenile Delinquency Case.	431
§ 12.19(b)	The Limited Circumstances in Which an Incompetency Claim May Be Advisable or Necessary.	432
§ 12.20	Procedures for Raising and Litigating a Claim of Incompetency.	433

Part E. Insanity

§ 12.21	Applicability of the Insanity Defense to Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings.	435
§ 12.22	The Standard for Acquitting on Grounds of Insanity at the Time of the Offense.....	436
§ 12.23	Inadvisability of Raising the Insanity Defense in Juvenile Delinquency Cases.	437
§ 12.24	Defending Against the Judicial Interposition of an Insanity Defense. . .	439

Chapter 13

Transfer or Waiver to Adult Court.	441
§ 13.01	Introduction.	441
§ 13.02	Factors That Affect the Decision Whether to Oppose Transfer to Adult Court.	450
§ 13.03	Meeting with the Prosecutor.	451
§ 13.04	The Right to a Hearing and Other Hearing-Related Rights.....	452

§ 13.05	The Rights to Conduct a Complete Cross-examination and to Present a Complete Defense.	455
§ 13.05(a)	Cross-Examination.	456
§ 13.05(b)	Presenting Defense Evidence.	456
§ 13.06	The Right to Court-Appointed Experts.	457
§ 13.06(a)	The Private Interest of the Juvenile.	458
§ 13.06(b)	The Governmental Interest.	458
§ 13.06(c)	Risk of an Erroneous Decision.	458
§ 13.07	Notice and Opportunity to Prepare Adequately.	459
§ 13.08	Preparing for the Hearing.	460
§ 13.09	Counsel’s Decision to Hold or Waive a Transfer Hearing.	463
§ 13.10	Making a Record.	463
§ 13.11	Structuring the Hearing.	463
§ 13.12	Burden and Standard of Proof.	466
§ 13.13	Strategy for the Hearing.	467
§ 13.14	Putting on a Defense Case.	469
§ 13.15	Special Considerations Bearing on Amenability to Treatment.	472
§ 13.16	Evidentiary Rules at the Transfer Hearing.	472
§ 13.17	Double Jeopardy.	473
§ 13.18	Statement of Reasons.	474
§ 13.19	Appealability; Timeliness of an Appeal.	474
Chapter 14
Guilty Pleas.		476

Part A. Introduction

§ 14.01 Guilty Pleas in Juvenile Court. 476

§ 14.02 Organization of the Chapter; Terminology. 477

Part B. The Decision Whether to Plead Guilty or Go to Trial: Factors To Consider in Developing and Evaluating a Potential Plea Bargain

§ 14.03 Overview of the Cost-Benefit Analysis Involved in Deciding Whether to Plead Guilty or Go to Trial. 477

§ 14.04 Assessing the Likelihood of Winning at Trial. 478

 § 14.04(a) The Strength of the Case for the Prosecution. 478

 § 14.04(b) The Strength of the Case for the Defense. 480

 § 14.04(c) Circumstances That May Prejudice the Trier of Fact Against the Respondent. 481

 § 14.04(d) Superior (Or Inferior) Ability, Experience, or Personableness on the Part of the Prosecutor Who Will Try the Case. 483

 § 14.04(e) The Presence or Absence of Debatable or Dubious Legal Points Relating to Substantive or Evidentiary Matters on Which the Judge Might Commit Reversible Error in a Pretrial Ruling or in the Course of a Trial. 483

 § 14.04(f) The Possibility of a Divided Jury. 483

§ 14.05 Assessing the Likelihood That the Judge Will Penalize the Respondent at Sentencing Because the Respondent Opted in Favor of a Trial Instead of a Guilty Plea. 484

§ 14.06 Assessing Whether a Guilty Plea Would Produce Any Significant Advantages at Sentencing. 486

 § 14.06(a) Introduction: The Analytical Process Involved in Gauging Potential Sentencing Advantages of a Guilty Plea. 486

 § 14.06(b) The Concrete Sentencing Advantages Available in Juvenile Court. 487

§ 14.06(c)	Mechanisms for Using a Guilty Plea to Obtain One of the Sentencing Advantages Available in Juvenile Court.....	489
§ 14.06(c)(1)	Prosecutorial Commitments to Support (Or Not Object to) a Specific Sentence.....	489
§ 14.06(c)(2)	Obtaining Judicial Ratification of the Parties' Agreement to a Specific Sentence.	492
§ 14.06(c)(3)	Prosecutorial Commitments to Aid the Defense at Sentencing in Ways Other than Supporting (Or Not Objecting to) a Specific Sentence.	493
§ 14.06(c)(4)	The Additional Intangible Effects of a Guilty Plea in Securing the “Good Will” of the Sentencing Judge....	494
§ 14.07	Assessing Whether the Respondent Will Suffer Any Collateral Consequences as a Result of Either a Guilty Plea or a Conviction at Trial.	494
§ 14.08	Assessing Whether a Trial Would Be Detrimental in That It Would Expose the Judge to Particularly Egregious Facts or a Highly Sympathetic Complainant and Thereby Cause the Judge to Impose a Harsher Sentence in the Event of Conviction..	501
§ 14.09	Assessing Whether the Decision to Plead Guilty Can Be Used to Steer the Case Before a Favorable Sentencing Judge.	503
§ 14.10	Assessing Whether a Guilty Plea Would Prejudice the Respondent by Precluding Appellate Review of an Adverse Trial Court Ruling on a Suppression Issue or Other Issue Litigated Before Trial.	504
§ 14.11	Assessing the Impact of the Additional Considerations That Arise in Cases in Which the Respondent Is Detained Before Trial.....	506
§ 14.12	Assessing the Impact of Other Factors That Militate in Favor of Either a Guilty Plea or a Trial.	506
§ 14.12(a)	The Potential Advantages of a Guilty Plea in a Case in which the Prosecutor Has Under-Charged the Respondent.	506
§ 14.12(b)	Cases in Which a Client Manifests Strong Discomfort With One or the Other of the Options of Entering a

Guilty Plea or Going to Trial. 507

Part C. Plea Negotiations

§ 14.13 Defense Counsel’s Obligations in Plea Negotiations. 507

§ 14.14 Opening Discussions with the Prosecutor. 509

§ 14.15 When Negotiation Should Begin. 509

§ 14.16 The Conditions Precedent of Effective Defense Negotiation –
Things to Know About the Law, the Case, and the Motivations
of the Prosecutor. 511

§ 14.17 Techniques of Plea Negotiation. 514

§ 14.18 The Plea Agreement with the Prosecutor. 517

Part D. Counseling the Client

§ 14.19 Advising the Client Whether to Plead Guilty. 523

§ 14.20 Discussing the Guilty Plea with the Client’s Parent. 525

§ 14.21 Making a Record of the Advice Given to the Client and the Parent. 525

§ 14.22 Special Problems in Counseling the Client Whether to Plead Guilty. 526

 § 14.22(a) The Guilty Plea and the “Innocent” Client. 526

 § 14.22(b) Clients Who Are Unrealistic About the Chances of Winning at Trial. 527

§ 14.23 Preparing the Client for the Plea Colloquy. 528

 § 14.23(a) Preparing the Client for the Colloquy on Waivers of Rights and Comprehension of Potential Sentences. 528

 § 14.23(b) Preparing the Client for the Admission of Guilt. 531

 § 14.23(c) Advising the Client of the Risk of Detention
 Pending Sentencing. 532

§ 14.23(d)	Counseling the Client About Appearance and Demeanor at a Plea Hearing.	533
§ 14.24	Preparing the Parent for the Plea Hearing.	533
Part E. The Plea Hearing
§ 14.25	Scheduling the Plea Hearing.	534
§ 14.26	Procedure at the Plea Hearing.	535
§ 14.26(a)	Essential Parties.	536
§ 14.26(b)	Defense Counsel’s Preliminary Recitation; Putting the Plea Agreement on the Record.	536
§ 14.26(c)	The Plea Colloquy.	538
§ 14.26(d)	Judicial Determination Whether to Proceed Directly to Disposition; Determination of the Respondent’s Detention Status Pending a Delayed Disposition.	539
§ 14.27	Coping with a Plea That Breaks Down.	540
§ 14.28	Procedure in Cases in Which the Plea Was Accepted and the Case Was Adjourned for a Pre-Sentence Report: Preparing the Client and the Parent for the Probation Interview.	541
Part F. Post-Conviction, Appellate, and Collateral Challenges to the Validity of the Guilty Plea
§ 14.29	Motions to Withdraw or Vacate the Guilty Plea.	541
§ 14.29(a)	Motion for Leave to Withdraw a Valid Guilty Plea.	541
§ 14.29(b)	Motion to Vacate an Invalid Guilty Plea.	544
§ 14.29(c)	The Prohibition Against Evidentiary Use of a Withdrawn or Vacated Guilty Plea in a Subsequent Trial.	553
§ 14.30	Appellate Review in Guilty Plea Cases.	554
§ 14.31	Collateral Review in Guilty Plea Cases.	554

Chapter 15
Defense Motions to Advance or for a Continuance; Motions to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution; Speedy Trial Motions. 555

§ 15.01 Defense Motions to Advance the Date of a Pretrial Hearing or the Trial. 555

§ 15.02 Defense Continuances. 555

§ 15.03 Moving for Dismissal for Want of Prosecution or Other Appropriate Relief When the Prosecutor Is Not Ready to Proceed at Trial or a Pretrial Hearing. 558

§ 15.04 Motions to Dismiss on Speedy Trial Grounds. 559

 § 15.04(a) Statutory Rights to a Speedy Trial. 559

 § 15.04(b) Federal and State Constitutional Guarantees of Speedy Trial. . . 560

 § 15.04(c) Procedures for Litigating Speedy Trial Issues. 568

Chapter 16
Motions Hearings; Motions Arguments. 569

Part A. Motions Hearings Generally

§ 16.01 Evidentiary and Non-Evidentiary Motions Hearings. 569

§ 16.02 Scope of the Chapter. 570

Part B. Non-Evidentiary Motions Arguments

§ 16.03 Procedure. 571

§ 16.04 Guarding Against Undue Disclosures of Defense Trial Evidence and Trial Strategy. 571

§ 16.05 The Extent to Which Counsel Should Orally Recite Facts and Law Already Set Forth in the Motion. 572

§ 16.06 The Inadvisability of String-Citing Cases or Analyzing Court Decisions at Length. 573

§ 16.07	The Importance of Being Responsive to the Judge’s Questions.	574
Chapter 17
Motions to Dismiss the Charging Paper.
§ 17.01	Types of Challenges to the Charging Paper; The Stages at Which These Challenges Can and Should Be Raised.	576
§ 17.02	Terminology.	578
§ 17.03	Failure of the Charging Paper to Allege Facts Constituting a Crime. . .	579
§ 17.03(a)	Failure to Charge Acts That Are Criminal in Nature.	579
§ 17.03(b)	Failure to Allege Facts That Make Out Every Element of the Charged Offense.	581
§ 17.03(c)	Lack of Specificity.	582
§ 17.04	Jurisdictional Defects: Maximum Age and Minimum Age Requirements for Juvenile Court Prosecutions.	584
§ 17.04(a)	Maximum Age.	584
§ 17.04(b)	Minimum Age and the Infancy Defense.	586
§ 17.05	Dismissal of the Charging Paper for Failure to Establish Venue.	588
§ 17.06	Technical Defects in the Charging Paper.	591
§ 17.07	Statute of Limitations.	592
§ 17.08	Double Jeopardy.	592
§ 17.08(a)	Introduction: The General Rules.	592
§ 17.08(b)	Definitions.	594
§ 17.08(b)(1)	“Attachment of Jeopardy”.	594
§ 17.08(b)(2)	“Same Offense”.	594
§ 17.08(c)	Reprosecution After An Acquittal.	596

§ 17.08(d)	Reprosecution After Conviction in the First Trial.	599
§ 17.08(e)	Reprosecution After the First Trial Ends in a Mistrial.	600
§ 17.08(f)	Collateral Estoppel.	601
§ 17.08(g)	Reprosecution by a Different Sovereign.	605
§ 17.08(h)	Double Jeopardy Doctrines Governing a Juvenile Court Judge’s Review of the Findings of a Referee or Hearing Officer.	606
§ 17.08(i)	Challenges to the Petition on the Ground of Unconstitutionality of the Statute on which the Charges Are Based.	607

Chapter 18

Motions for Severance (Or Consolidation) of Counts or Respondents. 610

Part A. Motions Challenging the Joinder of Counts or Seeking Consolidation of Counts

§ 18.01	Introduction: The Problem of Joined Counts; Overview of the Possible Remedies.	610
§ 18.02	Deciding Whether to Oppose a Trial on Multiple Charges.	611
§ 18.03	Motions to Dismiss the Charging Paper for Failure to Allege Facts Justifying the Joinder of Counts.	614
§ 18.04	Motions Challenging Misjoinder of Charges.	614
§ 18.05	Motions for a Severance of Charges on the Ground of Prejudicial Joinder.	615
§ 18.06	Consolidation of Counts.	617

Part B. Motions Challenging the Misjoinder of Respondents or Seeking Severance of Respondents

§ 18.07	Introduction: The Problem of Joined Respondents; Overview of the Possible Remedies.	618
§ 18.08	Deciding Whether to Oppose a Joint Trial of Respondents.	619
§ 18.09	Motions Challenging Misjoinder of Respondents.	621

§ 18.10	Motions for a Severance of Respondents on the Ground of Prejudicial Joinder.	621
§ 18.10(a)	Severance on the Basis of a Co-Respondent’s Confession Implicating the Respondent.	622
§ 18.10(b)	Severance on the Basis of the Respondent’s Need to Call the Co-Respondent as a Witness.	626
§ 18.10(c)	Severance on the Basis of the Respondents’ Conflicting and Irreconcilable Defenses.	627
§ 18.10(d)	Severance on the Basis of the Disparity or Dissimilarity of the Evidence Against the Respondents.	630
§ 18.11	Defense Motions for Consolidation of Respondents.	632
Chapter 19
Motions for Diversion, ACD, Stetting.	633
§ 19.01	The Nature of the Motion; Defense Counsel’s Responsibilities.	633
§ 19.02	Invoking the Prosecutor’s Discretion in the First Instance.	636
§ 19.03	Seeking a Judicial Order of Diversion in Jurisdictions in Which Prosecutorial Consent to Diversion Is Not Required.	637
§ 19.03(a)	Addressing the Circumstances of the Crime.	639
§ 19.03(b)	Addressing the Circumstances of the Respondent’s Life.	641
§ 19.04	Seeking Judicial Relief Despite a Statute or Rule Requiring Prosecutorial Consent to Diversion.	644
§ 19.05	Developing and Implementing a Proposed Diversion Plan.	647
§ 19.06	Guilt, Penitence and Future Promise.	648
Chapter 20
Motions for a Change of Venue; Motions for Recusal of the Judge.	650

Part A. Motions for a Change of Venue

§ 20.01	Statutory and Constitutional Rules Governing Venue in a Delinquency Case.	650
§ 20.01(a)	The Statutory Provisions.	650
§ 20.01(b)	The Constitutional Provisions.	650
§ 20.02	Motions Challenging the Charging Paper on Venue Grounds.	651
§ 20.03	Defense Motions for a Change of Venue.	651
§ 20.03(a)	Motions for a Change of Venue in Order to Secure Defense Access to Witnesses.	652
§ 20.03(b)	Motions for a Change of Venue on the Ground That a Fair Trial Cannot Be Had in the Court in Which the Charge Is Pending.	652
Part B. Motions for Recusal or Disqualification of the Judge
§ 20.04	The Right to an Impartial Judge.	655
§ 20.05	Grounds for Recusal or Disqualification of the Judge.	656
§ 20.06	Procedures for Seeking Recusal or Disqualification.	665
§ 20.07	Tactical Considerations in Deciding Whether to Seek Recusal and in Framing the Recusal Request.	666
Chapter 21
Election or Waiver of Jury Trial; Motions Relating to the Jury.
§ 21.01	The Right to Jury Trial in Juvenile Delinquency Cases.	668
§ 21.02	Election or Waiver of Jury Trial.	671
§ 21.02(a)	Procedure.	671
§ 21.02(b)	Factors That Should Be Considered in Deciding Whether to Elect or Waive a Jury Trial.	672
§ 21.02(c)	Counseling the Client.	674

§ 21.03	Motions Challenging Jury Selection and Handling.	675
§ 21.03(a)	State Law and Federal Constitutional Grounds for Challenging the Composition or Handling of the Jury.	675
§ 21.03(b)	Motions Challenging the Jury Selection Process on the Ground of Systematic Exclusion of a Racial or Other “Distinct Class” of Citizens.	676
§ 21.04	Investigation of Prospective Trial Jurors.	678
Chapter 22
Suppression Hearings.	679
§ 22.01	The Timing of the Suppression Hearing.	679
§ 22.02	Defense Goals and Strategies at a Suppression Hearing.	679
§ 22.03	Procedural Aspects of the Suppression Hearing.	681
§ 22.03(a)	The Defense Response When a Prosecution or Defense Witness Fails to Appear.	681
§ 22.03(b)	Waiving the Respondent’s Presence in Suppression Hearings That Involve an Identification Suppression Claim.	683
§ 22.03(c)	Enforcing the “Rule on Witnesses” in a Suppression Hearing.	684
§ 22.03(d)	Who Proceeds First in the Suppression Hearing: The Burdens of Production and Persuasion.	685
§ 22.03(e)	The Admissibility of Hearsay Testimony in Suppression Hearings.	689
§ 22.03(f)	The Defense Right to Disclosure of Prior Statements of Prosecution Witnesses.	690
§ 22.04	Techniques for Cross-Examining Prosecution Witnesses at a Suppression Hearing.	692
§ 22.04(a)	Examination Techniques When Counsel’s Primary Goal Is to Win the Suppression Hearing.	692

§ 22.04(b)	Examination Techniques When Counsel’s Primary Goal in Litigating the Suppression Motion Is to Obtain Discovery.	693
§ 22.04(c)	Examination Techniques When Counsel’s Primary Goal Is to Lay a Foundation for Impeachment at Trial.. . . .	695
§ 22.04(d)	Examination Techniques When Counsel Has a Mixture of Goals at the Suppression Hearing.	698
§ 22.04(e)	Using Diagrams and Vidcam Recordings in Cross-Examination.. . . .	699
§ 22.05	Determining Whether to Present the Testimony of the Respondent and Other Defense Witnesses.. . . .	700
§ 22.05(a)	Testimony by the Respondent.	701
§ 22.05(b)	Testimony by Defense Witnesses Other than the Respondent.. . . .	702
§ 22.06	Arguing the Motion and Obtaining the Formal Judicial Findings Necessary for Effective Appellate Review.	705
§ 22.06(a)	Timing of the Argument; Reasons for Seeking a Continuance.. . . .	705
§ 22.06(b)	Order of the Parties’ Arguments.	706
§ 22.06(c)	Using Burdens of Production and Persuasion.	706
§ 22.06(d)	Factors to Consider in Constructing Legal and Factual Arguments.. . . .	706
§ 22.06(e)	Obtaining or Avoiding Findings by the Motions Judge in Order to Improve the Respondent’s Chances on Appeal.. . . .	709
§ 22.07	After the Suppression Hearing: Protecting the Respondent’s Rights at Trial and Preserving Appellate Remedies.	710

Chapter 23
Motions to Suppress Tangible Evidence. 713

Part A. Introduction: Tools and Techniques for Litigating Search and Seizure Claims

§ 23.01	Overview of the Chapter and Bibliographical Note.....	713
§ 23.02	Constitutional and Statutory Restraints on Searches and Seizures.	714
§ 23.02(a)	General Principles of Fourth Amendment Law.....	714
§ 23.02(b)	State Constitutional Protections Against Searches and Seizures.....	716
§ 23.02(c)	Statutory Provisions Relating to Searches and Seizures.	716
§ 23.03	Analyzing Search and Seizure Issues: The Questions to Ask.	716
Part B. On-the-Street Encounters with the Police: Arrests, Searches Incident to Arrest, Terry Stops, Terry Frisks, and Other Encounters
§ 23.04	The Spectrum of On-the-Street Encounters Between Citizens and the Police: Contacts, Terry Stops and Arrests.....	725
§ 23.04(a)	Contacts.....	725
§ 23.04(b)	The Dividing Line Between Contacts and “Seizures” Within the Meaning of the Fourth Amendment.....	725
§ 23.04(c)	Terry Stops.....	732
§ 23.04(d)	Arrests.	733
§ 23.04(e)	“Custody” for Purposes of the Miranda Doctrine.	735
§ 23.05	Tactical Reasons for Seeking a Categorization of Police Conduct as an Arrest or as a Terry Stop.	735
§ 23.06	Criteria for Categorizing a Restraint (That Is, Any Seizure of the Person) as a Terry Stop on the One Hand or an Arrest on the Other....	736
§ 23.06(a)	The Length of the Restraint.	737
§ 23.06(b)	Whether the Police Transported the Respondent from the Location of the Stop.....	740
§ 23.06(c)	The Nature of the Setting in Which the Detention Takes Place.	742

§ 23.06(d)	Whether the Detention Was for the Purpose of Interrogation.	744
§ 23.06(e)	The Intrusiveness of the Restraint; Police Behavior Conventionally Associated with Arrest.	745
§ 23.07	Circumstances Justifying an Arrest.	746
§ 23.07(a)	Authorization by Statute or Common Law.	746
§ 23.07(b)	Arrest Warrants.	747
§ 23.07(c)	Arrests Without a Warrant: The Basic Authorizations for Warrantless Arrest.	747
§ 23.07(d)	The Probable Cause Requirement for Arrest.	750
§ 23.08	Searches Incident to Arrest.	759
§ 23.08(a)	The “Search Incident to Arrest” Doctrine.	759
§ 23.08(b)	Searches of Containers in the Possession of Arrested Persons.	761
§ 23.08(c)	“Inventory” Search Incident to Incarceration.	769
§ 23.08(d)	Search Prior to the Point of Arrest.	771
§ 23.09	Circumstances Justifying a Terry Stop.	772
§ 23.10	Circumstances Justifying a Terry Frisk; The Plain Touch Doctrine.	777
§ 23.11	Factors Commonly Relied on by the Police to Justify an Arrest or a Terry Stop or Frisk.	780
§ 23.11(a)	“High Crime Neighborhood”.	780
§ 23.11(b)	Failure to Respond to Police Inquiry; Flight; Hassling the Police.	782
§ 23.11(c)	Furtive Gestures; Nervousness.	787
§ 23.11(d)	Arrests and Terry Stops Based on Tips from Informants.	789

§ 23.12	Police Seizures of Objects from the Respondent’s Person; Police Demands That a Respondent Hand Over an Object in His or Her Possession.	789
§ 23.13	The Respondent’s Alleged Abandonment of Contraband upon the Arrival of the Police: The “Dropsie” Problem.	791
§ 23.14	Post-arrest Custodial Treatment of the Respondent.	794
Part C. Police Entry and Search of Dwellings or Other Premises
§ 23.15	The Threshold Issue: Respondent’s Expectation of Privacy.	799
§ 23.15(a)	Introduction to the Concept of Constitutionally Protected Interests and “Standing” to Raise Fourth Amendment Claims.	799
§ 23.15(b)	Expectation of Privacy; Areas in Which a Respondent Will Ordinarily Be Deemed to Have the Requisite Expectation.	802
§ 23.15(c)	“Curtilage” and “Open Fields”; Multifamily Apartment Complexes.	807
§ 23.15(d)	Police Search or Seizure of an Object Belonging to the Respondent from Premises in Which the Respondent Has No Privacy Interest.	813
§ 23.15(e)	“Automatic Standing”.	815
§ 23.16	Police Searches of Premises.	816
§ 23.16(a)	General Principles.	816
§ 23.16(b)	“Administrative” Searches of Commercial Premises.	818
§ 23.16(c)	Electronic and Nonelectronic Surveillance.	819
§ 23.17	Entry of Premises Pursuant to a Search Warrant.	824
§ 23.17(a)	“Bare Bones” Affidavits.	827
§ 23.17(b)	Improper Multi-unit Warrant Applications; Overly

	Broad Warrants.	832
§ 23.17(c)	Affidavits Containing “Deliberate Falsehoods” or Statements Manifesting a “Reckless Disregard for the Truth”.. . . .	835
§ 23.17(d)	Warrants Based on Tainted Evidence.	838
§ 23.17(e)	Neutral and Detached Magistrate.. . . .	839
§ 23.17(f)	The Particularity Requirement.. . . .	839
§ 23.17(g)	Scope of the Search Permitted in Executing a Warrant.. . . .	842
§ 23.17(h)	Deficiency of the Warrant Due to Deficiency of Information Supplied by the Same Officer Who Later Executes the Warrant.. . . .	845
§ 23.18	Warrantless Entries of Buildings and Searches on Consent.	845
§ 23.18(a)	Voluntariness of the Consent.. . . .	846
§ 23.18(b)	Authority to Consent: Consent by a Party Other than the Respondent.. . . .	854
§ 23.18(c)	Private Searches.. . . .	858
§ 23.18(d)	Application of the “Private Search” Doctrine to Home Entries by Law Enforcement Officers.. . . .	862
§ 23.19	Warrantless Entry for the Purpose of Making a Valid Arrest.	864
§ 23.20	Warrantless Entry Under “Exigent Circumstances”.	869
§ 23.21	“Knock and Announce” Requirements: Restrictions upon the Manner of Police Entry.	875
§ 23.22	Scope of Permissible Police Activity After Entering the Premises.	877
§ 23.22(a)	The Requisite Relationship Between Police Activity Inside the Dwelling and the Purpose of the Entry.	878
§ 23.22(b)	Police Officers’ Search and Seizure of Objects While Searching the Premises; The “Plain View” Exception to the Warrant

	Requirement.....	879
§ 23.22(c)	Detention and Searches of Persons Found on the Premises....	882
§ 23.22(d)	“Protective Sweep” of the Premises.....	884

Part D. Automobile Stops, Searches, Inspections, and Impoundments

§ 23.23	The Threshold Issue: Respondent’s Interest in the Automobile or Expectation of Privacy Inside It.....	886
§ 23.24	Evidentiary Searches of Automobiles: The “Automobile Exception” to the Warrant Requirement.	888
§ 23.25	Inventory Searches of Impounded Vehicles; Consent Searches of Vehicles.....	892
§ 23.26	Searches of Automobiles Incident to the Arrest of the Driver or Occupants.	896
§ 23.27	“Terry Stops” of Automobiles and Attendant Searches.....	897
§ 23.28	Traffic Stops and Attendant Searches.	900
§ 23.29	License Checks; Stops of Automobiles at Roadblocks and Checkpoints.....	904
§ 23.30	Border Searches.....	908

Part E. Probable Cause or Articulable Suspicion Based on Information Obtained from Other Police Officers or Civilian Informants

§ 23.31	Police Action Based on Information Learned from Other Police Officers.	910
§ 23.32	Police Action Based on Information Learned from a Civilian Informant.	911
§ 23.32(a)	The General Standard.....	911
§ 23.32(b)	“Veracity” of the Informant.....	914
§ 23.32(c)	The Informant’s “Basis of Knowledge”.....	916

§ 23.32(d) Partial Corroboration of the Informant’s Statement Through
Police Investigation. 917

§ 23.32(e) Disclosure of the Informant’s Name at the Suppression
Hearing. 918

Part F. School Searches and Seizures

§ 23.33 Applicability of Fourth Amendment Protections to the School Setting. 918

§ 23.34 Searches of the Student’s Person by School Officials. 921

§ 23.35 Searches of Students’ Lockers or Desks by School Officials. 929

§ 23.36 Searches by School Officials at the Behest of the Police. 931

Part G. Derivative Evidence: Fruits of Unlawful Searches and Seizures

§ 23.37 The Concept of “Derivative Evidence”: Evidence That Must Be Suppressed as the Fruits of an Unlawful Search or Seizure. 932

§ 23.38 Prosecutorial Burden of Disproving “Taint” of Unlawful Search and Seizure. 939

§ 23.39 Relevance of the “Flagrancy” of the Police Conduct in Ascertaining
“Taint”. 943

§ 23.40 Unavailability of “Tainted” Evidence as Justification for Any Subsequent Police Action. 946

Chapter 24

Motions to Suppress Confessions, Admissions, and Other Statements

of the Respondent. 947

Part A. Introduction

§ 24.01 Strategic Reasons for Seeking Suppression of the Respondent’s
Statements, Whether Inculpatory or Exculpatory. 947

§ 24.02 Applicability of Adult Court Suppression Doctrines to Juvenile Court
Proceedings. 947

Part B. Involuntary Statements

§ 24.03	General Standard for Assessing Voluntariness.	948
§ 24.04	Police Coercion Rendering a Statement Involuntary.	951
§ 24.04(a)	Physical Force or Threat of Force.	951
§ 24.04(b)	Intimidating or Overbearing Circumstances of Interrogation or Detention.	952
§ 24.04(c)	Promises of Leniency or Threats of Adverse Governmental Action.	953
§ 24.04(d)	Tricks or Artifices.	956
§ 24.05	Characteristics of the Respondent That Are Relevant to the Assessment of Voluntariness.	960
§ 24.05(a)	Youth.	961
§ 24.05(b)	Mental Illness, Intellectual Disability, Limited Education.	963
§ 24.05(c)	Effects of Drugs or Alcohol.	964
§ 24.05(d)	Lack of Prior Experience with the Police.	964
§ 24.05(e)	Combination of Factors.	965
§ 24.06	Applicability of the Involuntariness Doctrine to Coercion by School Officials or Private Citizens.	966

Part C. Miranda Violations

§ 24.07	The Miranda Doctrine Generally.	967
§ 24.08	The Precondition for Applicability of Miranda Protections: “Custodial Interrogation”.	969
§ 24.08(a)	“Custody”.	969
§ 24.08(b)	“Interrogation”.	975

§ 24.09	Validity of the Miranda Warnings.....	979
§ 24.10	Validity of the Respondent’s Waiver of Miranda Rights.	983
§ 24.10(a)	The Requirement That Miranda Waivers Be Voluntary.	983
§ 24.10(b)	The Requirement That Miranda Waivers Be “Knowing and Intelligent”.....	985
§ 24.11	Statements Taken After the Respondent Has Asserted His or Her Miranda Rights to Silence or Counsel.....	992
§ 24.11(a)	Sufficiency of the Language Used in Asserting the Right.....	993
§ 24.11(b)	Assertion of the Right to Silence.....	996
§ 24.11(c)	Assertion of the Right to Counsel.	997
§ 24.12	Applicability of Miranda Requirements to Interrogation by School Officials or Private Citizens.....	1005

Part D. Other Constitutional, Common-Law, and Statutory Bases for Suppressing Statements

§ 24.13	Suppression Under the Sixth Amendment Right to Counsel: The Massiah Principle.....	1008
§ 24.13(a)	“Critical Stages” of the Proceedings.	1009
§ 24.13(b)	Statements “Deliberately Elicited” by the Government.....	1011
§ 24.13(c)	Waiver.	1013
§ 24.14	Constitutional and Statutory Standards Governing Involvement of a Respondent’s Parent or Guardian During Police Interrogation.	1015
§ 24.14(a)	Constitutional Standards.	1015
§ 24.14(b)	Statutory Requirements.	1018
§ 24.14(c)	Challenging Statements Obtained by Police Exploitation of the Presence of the Parent or Guardian.	1019
§ 24.15	Statements Obtained During a Period of Unnecessary Delay Following

	Arrest.	1022
§ 24.16	State Common-Law Doctrines Requiring the Suppression of Statements as Involuntary.	1024
§ 24.17	Statements Obtained by Eavesdropping on a Conversation Between the Respondent and Defense Counsel.	1026
§ 24.18	Electronic Recording of Interrogations.	1027
§ 24.19	Statements Obtained Through Violation of the Respondent’s Fourth Amendment Rights or Illegal Eavesdropping.	1029
§ 24.20	Statements Tainted by Prior Ones That Were Unlawfully Obtained: The “Cat Out of the Bag” Doctrine.	1030
§ 24.20(a)	Statements Tainted by a Prior Statement Taken in Violation of the Due Process Clause and the Self-Incrimination Clause of the Fifth Amendment.	1031
§ 24.20(b)	Statements Tainted by a Prior Statement Taken in Violation of Miranda	1032
§ 24.20(c)	Statements Tainted by a Prior Statement Taken in Violation of the Sixth Amendment.	1036
§ 24.20(d)	Statements Tainted by a Prior Statement Taken in Violation of the Fourth Amendment.	1037
§ 24.20(e)	Potential Implications of Elstad for Physical Fruits of an Unconstitutionally Obtained Statement.	1037
 Part E. Trial Issues in Cases Involving Incriminating Statements by the Respondent
§ 24.21	Prosecutorial Proof of Corpus Delicti	1038
§ 24.22	The Right of the Defense to Show the Circumstances Under Which the Statement Was Made.	1039
§ 24.23	The Prosecutor’s Power to Use a Suppressed or Suppressible Statement for Impeachment.	1040
§ 24.24	Admissibility of Evidence of the Respondent’s Pre- or Post-Arrest

	Silence.	1042
§ 24.25	Statements Taken Through an Interpreter.	1047
Chapter 25
Motions to Suppress Identification Testimony.
§ 25.01	Introduction and Overview.	1048
Part A. Due Process Grounds for Suppressing an Identification as Unreliable
§ 25.02	The Due Process Standard.	1050
§ 25.03	Suggestiveness of Police Identification Procedures.	1052
§ 25.03(a)	Show-ups.	1055
§ 25.03(b)	Lineups.	1057
§ 25.03(c)	Photographic Identifications.	1058
§ 25.03(d)	Aggregation of Identification Procedures.	1062
§ 25.04	Reliability of the Identification.	1062
§ 25.05	Suppression of an Identification as Unconstitutionally Unreliable Even Though Police Action Is Minimal or Non-Existent.	1065
§ 25.05(a)	Identifications Made for the First Time in Court.	1066
Part B. Other Grounds for Suppressing Identification Testimony
§ 25.06	Violations of the Sixth Amendment Right to Counsel.	1067
§ 25.07	Violations of the Fourth Amendment: Identifications Resulting from an Illegal Arrest or Terry Stop.	1068
§ 25.08	State Law Grounds of Objection to Identifications.	1068
Chapter 26
Interlocutory Review of Pretrial Rulings by Means of Prerogative Writs.
§ 26.01	The Availability of Prerogative Writs to Obtain Interlocutory

	Review of Pretrial Rulings.....	1069
§ 26.02	Tactical Considerations: Potential Advantages and Disadvantages of Interlocutory Review.	1072
Chapter 27
Trial: General Characteristics; The Opening Stage.....
Part A. General Characteristics of the Trial
§ 27.01	The Respondent’s Presence During the Trial.	1074
§ 27.02	Defense Counsel’s Presence.	1087
§ 27.03	The Presence of the Respondent’s Parent or Guardian.	1089
§ 27.04	Bench Trials: Their Nature and Implications for Defense Strategies and Techniques.	1090
§ 27.04(a)	Nature of Bench Trials.....	1090
§ 27.04(b)	Implications for Defense Strategies and Techniques.....	1091
§ 27.05	Jury Trials: Procedural Matters; Adjusting Strategy and Techniques to the Idiosyncrasies of Juries.	1093
§ 27.05(a)	Conduct of the Jury During Trial; Exposure of the Jury to Potentially Prejudicial Matters.....	1093
§ 27.05(a)(1)	Sequestration.	1093
§ 27.05(a)(2)	Jury Misconduct; Contacts Between Jurors and Other Persons; Exposure of Jurors to Potentially Prejudicial Publicity.	1094
§ 27.05(a)(3)	Contacts Between Defense Counsel or the Respondent and Jurors.....	1097
§ 27.05(a)(4)	Courtroom/courthouse symbology.....	1097
§ 27.05(a)(5)	Seating of complainants, other victims and their relatives at the prosecution table.	1098

§ 27.05(b)	Adjusting Strategies and Techniques to the Idiosyncrasies of Jury Trials.	1099
§ 27.06	Preparation of a Trial Folder or “Trial Brief” and an Exhibit File. . . .	1100
§ 27.07	Deciding Whether to Call the Respondent by First Name or Last Name at Trial.	1101
§ 27.08	Public Trial.	1011
§ 27.09	Transcription of Proceedings and the Respondent’s Right to Obtain a Transcript.	1109
Part B. The Opening Stage of the Trial
§ 27.10	The Preliminary Conference with the Judge Before Trial Begins.	1110
§ 27.11	The Rule on Witnesses.	1111
§ 27.12	Discovery at Trial.	1114
§ 27.12(a)	Defense Discovery.	1114
	§ 27.12(a)(1) Prior Statements of Witnesses.	1114
	§ 27.12(a)(2) Prior Criminal Records of Witnesses.	1115
§ 27.12(b)	Prosecutorial Discovery.	1116
§ 27.12(c)	Inspection In Camera Before Production of Materials Whose Disclosure is Sought by Either Party at Trial; Making a Record of Redaction Proceedings.	1116
§ 27.13	Requests by the Court That Counsel Estimate the Length of Time That the Defense Case Will Take.	1117

Chapter 28

Selecting the Jury at Trial: The Voir Dire. 1119

§ 28.01	Introduction.	1119
§ 28.02	Defense Objections to the Panel Prior to the Voir Dire	1119

§ 28.03	Voir Dire Procedure Generally.	1119
§ 28.03(a)	Challenges for Cause.	1120
§ 28.03(b)	Peremptory Challenges.	1126
§ 28.03(c)	Variations in Voir Dire Procedure; Sorts of Voir Dire Questions Allowed.	1137
§ 28.03(d)	Strategic Considerations in Exercising Challenges for Cause and Peremptories.	1143
§ 28.04	Defensive Functions of the Voir Dire ; Prepared Questions; Authorities.	1144
§ 28.05	Questions Testing the Attitudes of Jurors to Lay a Basis of Challenge for Cause or to Inform the Exercise of Peremptory Challenges.	1146
§ 28.06	Driving Home Principles Vital to the Defense Case.	1150
§ 28.07	Disarming Surprise Prosecution Evidence and Prejudicial Disclosures.	1151
§ 28.08	Establishing a Good Relationship with the Jurors, Exploring Their Backgrounds and Thinking Patterns, and Forewarning Them of Conduct by Counsel That They May Not Like.	1151
§ 28.09	Selecting Jurors.	1154
Chapter 29
Opening Statements.		1155
§ 29.01	Opening Statements Generally.	1155
§ 29.02	The Opening Statement for the Prosecution.	1155
§ 29.03	The Opening for the Defense.	1159
§ 29.03(a)	The Opening Statement for the Defense in a Jury Trial.	1159
§ 29.03(b)	The Defense Opening in a Bench Trial.	1162
§ 29.03(c)	Defense Opening Statements in Co-Respondent Trials.	1163

§ 30.04(c)	The Confrontation Clause.	1181
§ 30.05	Competency of Witnesses.	1198
§ 30.06	Co-Respondents', Co-conspirators', and Other Accomplices' Statements.	1200
§ 30.06(a)	Admissibility of Co-conspirators' Declarations.	1200
§ 30.06(b)	Admissibility of Co-respondents' Declarations at a Joint Trial.	1202
§ 30.07	Admissibility of Evidence of Convictions, Other Crimes, or [Bad] Acts by the Respondent or a Witness for the Prosecution or Defense..	1204
§ 30.07(a)	Proof of Character, Propensity, Other Crimes or [Bad] Acts of the Respondent in the Prosecution's Case-in-Chief.	1204
§ 30.07(b)	Proof of the Respondent's Prior Convictions or Prior [Bad] Acts for Impeachment or in Rebuttal.	1211
§ 30.07(c)	Defense Impeachment of Prosecution Witnesses with Prior Convictions or Prior [Bad] Acts.	1213
§ 30.07(d)	Defense Evidence of Prior Convictions or Prior [Bad] Acts of the Complainant or Other Participants in the Criminal Episode or of an Alternative Perpetrator.	1216
§ 30.07(e)	Prosecutorial Impeachment of Defense Witnesses with Prior Convictions or Prior [Bad] Acts.	1219

Chapter 31

Handling Prosecution Witnesses. 1220

§ 31.01	Cross-Examining Prosecution Witnesses – Generally.. . . .	1220
§ 31.01(a)	The Right to Cross-Examine; Bases for Objecting to Judicial Curtailed of Cross-examination.. . . .	1220
§ 31.01(b)	Deciding Whether to Cross-Examine; The Possible Goals of Cross-examination.. . . .	1224
§ 31.01(c)	Avoiding the Most Common Pitfalls of Cross-examination. . .	1227

§ 31.01(d)	Framing Cross-examination Questions for Maximum Effectiveness.	1228
§ 31.02	Police Witnesses.	1129
§ 31.03	Accomplices Turned State’s Evidence.	1233
§ 31.04	Complainants in Theft Cases.	1235
§ 31.05	Complainants Who Identify the Respondent, and Other Identification Witnesses.	1235
§ 31.06	The Complainant in a Rape or Other Sexual Offense.	1239
§ 31.07	The Mutual Assault Complainant.	1240
§ 31.08	The Child Complainant or Witness.	1241
§ 31.09	Prosecution Experts.	1241
§ 31.10	Snitches.	1249
§ 31.11	Impeaching Prosecution Witnesses with Their Prior Inconsistent Statements.	1251
§ 31.12	Impeaching Prosecution Witnesses with Their Prior Convictions and Prior [Bad] Acts.	1254
§ 31.13	Impeaching Witnesses with Their Reputation for Dishonesty.	1256
§ 31.14	The Prosecutor’s Tender of a Witness to Avoid a Missing Witness Inference.	1256
§ 31.15	Prosecution Claim of Surprise.	1258
§ 31.16	Nondisclosure and Suppression of Evidence; Fabrication of False Evidence.	1259
 Chapter 32
	Motion for Acquittal (The “Prima Facie Motion”)	1260
§ 32.01	The Motion for Acquittal.	1260

§ 32.02	Reserving Ruling on the Motion; “Holding Open”	1261
§ 32.03	Dismissal of Some Counts or Offenses.	1263
Chapter 33
Presenting the Case for the Defense.
Part A. General Aspects of the Defense Case
§ 33.01	The Decision Whether to Present Defense Evidence.	1264
§ 33.02	Planning and Presenting the Testimony of Defense Witnesses.	1265
§ 33.02(a)	Order of Defense Witnesses.	1265
§ 33.02(b)	Determining and Distributing the Content of Witnesses’ Testimony.	1267
§ 33.02(b)(1)	The Level of Detail of the Testimony.	1267
§ 33.02(b)(2)	Saving Favorable Material for Cross and Redirect.	1268
§ 33.02(b)(3)	Bringing out Unfavorable Material on Direct.	1269
§ 33.02(b)(4)	Rounding Out the Testimony.	1270
§ 33.02(c)	Structuring the Flow of the Witness’s Testimony.	1271
§ 33.02(d)	Drafting Direct Examination Questions.	1272
§ 33.02(e)	Conducting Direct Examination.	1273
§ 33.03	Disclosure to the Prosecution of Pretrial Statements of Defense Witnesses.	1274
§ 33.04	Challenging Rules and Practices That Inhibit the Presentation of Defense Evidence; The Constitutional Right to Present a Defense.	1276
Part B. Testimony by the Respondent
§ 33.05	The Respondent’s Right Not to Testify.	1282

§ 33.06	Considerations Affecting the Decision Whether the Respondent Should Testify.	1283
§ 33.07	Effect of the Respondent’s Choice.. . . .	1287
§ 33.08	Presenting Direct Testimony of the Respondent.	1287
§ 33.09	Cross-examination and Impeachment of the Respondent.	1289
§ 33.09(a)	The Basic Rules Governing the Prosecution’s Cross-examination and Impeachment of the Respondent.	1289
§ 33.09(b)	Orders Barring Counsel’s Consultation with the Respondent in Contemplation of Cross-examination.	1293
§ 33.10	Corroboration of the Respondent.. . . .	1293
Part C. Expert Witnesses
§ 33.11	Rules Governing Expert Testimony.. . . .	1293
§ 33.12	Qualification of the Expert.. . . .	1296
§ 33.12(a)	Subjects to Cover in Qualifying an Expert.	1296
§ 33.12(b)	Stipulating the Qualifications of the Expert.. . . .	1298
§ 33.13	General Structure of the Expert’s Testimony.. . . .	1298
§ 33.14	Hypothetical Questions.	1299
§ 33.15	The Expert’s Report.. . . .	1301
§ 33.16	Preparing the Expert for Cross-Examination.. . . .	1302
Part D. Character Witnesses
§ 33.17	Rules Governing the Presentation of Character Testimony.. . . .	1302
§ 33.18	Qualifications and Form of Examination of Character Witnesses.. . . .	1304
§ 33.19	Choice of the Character Witness.	1305

§ 33.20	Preparation of the Character Witness..	1306
§ 33.21	Expert Evidence of Exculpatory Personality Traits or of Dissonance between the Defendant’s Behavior and that Characteristic of Offenders; Diminished Capacity.	1308

Part E. Other Defense Witnesses and Other Aspects of the Defense Case

§ 33.22	Alibi Witnesses.	1311
§ 33.23	Witnesses Who Are Alleged Accomplices.	1311
§ 33.24	Surprise by a Defense Witness.. . . .	1312
§ 33.25	Court Witnesses and Hostile Witnesses.. . . .	1313

Chapter 34

Objections to Evidence; Motions for Mistrial; Proffers; Rulings on Evidentiary

Questions..		1317
§ 34.01	Objections and Motions to Strike; Making a Record..	1317
§ 34.02	Time of Objection; Quieting the Witness.	1318
§ 34.03	Statement of the Basis for Objections; Argument on Evidentiary Points.	1319
§ 34.04	Anticipatory Objections..	1320
§ 34.05	Voir Dire of a Witness..	1321
§ 34.06	Continuing Objections..	1322
§ 34.07	Deciding Whether to Object.	1322
§ 34.07(a)	Tactical Reasons for Objections.	1323
§ 34.07(b)	Tactical Reasons for Foregoing an Objection.	1324
§ 34.07(c)	Averting or Reducing the Risk in a Jury Trial that the Jury Will Be Irritated by Defense Objections..	1326
§ 34.08	Motions to Strike.	1327

§ 34.09	Objection to Improper Conduct of the Prosecutor or Judge.	1327
§ 34.10	Proffers on Objections to Defense Evidence.	1328
§ 34.11	Motion for a Mistrial.	1330
§ 34.11(a)	Grounds for a Mistrial.	1330
§ 34.11(b)	The Limited Availability of the Mistrial Remedy in Bench Trials.	1331
§ 34.11(c)	Deciding Whether to Request a Mistrial; Procedures for Moving for a Mistrial.	1331
§ 34.11(d)	Double Jeopardy Implications of a Mistrial.	1331
§ 34.11(d)(1)	Defense Motions for a Mistrial.	1332
§ 34.11(d)(2)	Prosecutorial Motions for a Mistrial or Mistrials Declared by the Court Sua Sponte	1334

Chapter 35

The Closing Stage of a Bench Trial: Renewal of the Motion for Acquittal;

	Closing Argument.	1336
§ 35.01	The Functions of the Motion for Acquittal and Closing Argument in a Bench Trial; Consolidation of the Motion and Closing in a Single Argument.	1336
§ 35.02	General Considerations Regarding the Content of the Defense Closing in a Bench Trial.	1338
§ 35.03	The Legal Standards Governing the Motion for Acquittal and the Determination of Guilt or Innocence.	1340
§ 35.04	Increased Prosecutorial Burden in Some Cases; Corroboration Requirements.	1341
§ 35.05	“Affirmative Defenses”.	1343
§ 35.06	The Effect of Inferences and Presumptions.	1344
§ 35.06(a)	Inferences.	1345

§ 35.06(b)	Presumptions Generally.	1345
§ 35.06(c)	Presumptions That Shift the Burden of Going Forward.	1346
§ 35.06(d)	Presumptions That Shift the Burden of Proof.	1346
§ 35.06(e)	Conclusive Presumptions of Law.	1347
§ 35.06(f)	Constitutional Issues Concerning Presumptions; Conclusion.	1347
§ 35.07	Variance Between the Prosecution’s Proof at Trial and the Allegations of the Petition.	1349
§ 35.08	Requesting Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in the Event of Conviction.	1350

Chapter 36

The Closing Stage of a Jury Trial: Renewal of the Motion for Acquittal; Closing Argument; Jury Instructions; The Jury’s Deliberations and Verdict.	1353
---	-------------

Part A. The Renewed Motion for Judgment of Acquittal

§ 36.01	The Renewed Motion for Acquittal; Partial Directed Verdicts.	1353
---------	--	------

Part B. Requests for Jury Instructions

§ 36.02	The Conference on Instructions.	1353
§ 36.03	The Lore of Charging the Jury.	1355
§ 36.04	General Areas Covered by the Charge.	1358
§ 36.05	Lesser Included Offenses.	1360
§ 36.06	Defense Requests for Instructions.	1364
§ 36.07	Preparing and Presenting the Defense Requests for Charge.	1373
§ 36.08	Learning What the Court Plans to Charge.	1374
§ 36.09	Objections to the Court’s Charge.	1374

Part C. Closing Argument

§ 36.10	Closing Argument Generally.	1375
§ 36.11	The Prosecutor’s Closing.	1376
§ 36.11(a)	Content of the Prosecutor’s Closing; Impermissible Areas and Arguments.	1376
§ 36.11(b)	Objecting to Improper Arguments by the Prosecutor.	1387
§ 36.12	Defense Argument.	1387
§ 36.12(a)	General Considerations.	1387
§ 36.12(b)	Structure and Content of the Defense Argument.	1388
§ 36.12(c)	Techniques to Consider Using in Closing Argument.	1390
§ 36.12(d)	Limits on Defense Argument.	1391
§ 36.12(e)	Wrapping Up.	1391

Part D. The Judge’s Charge to the Jury

§ 36.13	Taking Objections to the Court’s Charge.	1391
---------	--	------

Part E. The Jury’s Deliberations and Verdict

§ 36.14	Conduct of the Jury During Deliberations.	1393
§ 36.15	Jury Requests for Supplemental Information or Instructions.	1397
§ 36.16	Inability of the Jury to Agree; The “Dynamite Charge”.	1399
§ 36.17	Mistrial for Failure to Agree.	1402
§ 36.18	Return of the Verdict; Polling.	1404

Chapter 37

Postverdict Proceedings.	1407
---	-------------

§ 37.01	Scheduling the Disposition Date; Respondent’s Detention Status
---------	--	--

	Pending Disposition.....	1407
§ 37.02	Post-trial Motions to File in Cases in Which the Respondent Was Convicted.....	1408
§ 37.02(a)	Errors in the Pretrial Proceedings or the Trial.....	1409
§ 37.02(b)	Jurisdictional and Other Fundamental Errors.....	1417
§ 37.02(c)	Newly Discovered Evidence.....	1418
§ 37.02(d)	Insufficiency of the Evidence or a Verdict “Against the Weight of the Evidence”.....	1420
§ 37.02(e)	Motion for Dismissal in the Interests of Justice.....	1424
§ 37.03	Requesting the Expungement or Correction of the Respondent’s Record and the Refund of Fees and Costs in the Event of Acquittal..	1424
Chapter 38
Dispositions.....		1427
	Part A. Overview of the Dispositional Stage and Dispositional Options
§ 38.01	The Unique Nature of Sentencing in Juvenile Court; Overview of the Chapter.....	1427
§ 38.02	The Role of Counsel at Disposition.....	1427
§ 38.03	The Dispositional Options Available in Juvenile Court.....	1428
§ 38.03(a)	Introduction.....	1428
§ 38.03(b)	The Judge’s Power to Order a Specific Program.....	1428
§ 38.03(c)	The Range of Dispositional Alternatives.....	1429
§ 38.04	Procedures Prior to and at Disposition.....	1436
§ 38.04(a)	The Role of the Probation Department; The Nature and Functions of the Pre-Sentence Report.....	1436
§ 38.04(b)	Other Diagnostic and Evaluative Material.....	1437

§ 38.04(c)	The Nature of the Dispositional Hearing.....	1437
Part B. Preparing for Disposition
§ 38.05	Counseling the Respondent and His or Her Parent and Advising Them How to Behave During the Dispositional Process.....	1438
§ 38.05(a)	Counseling and Conferring with the Respondent.	1438
§ 38.05(b)	Discussions with the Respondent’s Parent or Guardian.	1439
§ 38.06	Meeting with Probation Officers and Other Court Personnel Before They Prepare Dispositional Reports.....	1440
§ 38.07	Dealing with Court Mental Health Personnel.	1441
§ 38.08	Obtaining a Copy of the Pre-Sentence Report and Other Reports and Records for Use at Disposition.	1443
§ 38.09	Securing Psychological Evaluations and Other Assessments of the Respondent.....	1444
§ 38.10	Engaging a Social Worker.....	1446
§ 38.11	Gathering Mitigation Witnesses, Letters of Support, and Exhibits. . . .	1446
§ 38.12	Meeting with Probation Officers and Other Court Personnel After Their Dispositional Reports Are Written.	1447
§ 38.13	Negotiating with the Prosecutor or Probation Officer.....	1449
§ 38.14	Finding Suitable Community-Based or Residential Alternatives to Incarceration and Arranging for the Respondent’s Admission to a Program Prior to the Hearing.	1449
§ 38.15	Timing of the Hearing: Right to a Speedy Hearing; Defense Motions for a Continuance.....	1450
§ 38.16	Submitting a Sentencing Memorandum Prior to the Hearing.	1451
§ 38.16(a)	Reasons for Submitting a Sentencing Memorandum.....	1451
§ 38.16(b)	Writing the Sentencing Memorandum.....	1452

§ 38.17	The Right to an Evidentiary Dispositional Hearing.....	1453
§ 38.17(a)	Conceptual Underpinnings for a Dispositional Hearing.	1453
§ 38.17(b)	The Constitutional Right to an Evidentiary Hearing.	1454

Part C. Conducting an Evidentiary Hearing

§ 38.18	Strategic Reasons for Waiving the Right to a Hearing.	1455
§ 38.19	Techniques for Conducting an Evidentiary Dispositional Hearing. ...	1456
§ 38.20	The Applicability of the Rules of Evidence.....	1458
§ 38.21	Cross-Examining the Probation Officer or Mental Health Expert Presented by the Prosecution.	1459
§ 38.22	Presenting Defense Evidence.....	1461
§ 38.23	Proposing a Dispositional Plan for the Defense.....	1462
§ 38.24	The Need for Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.....	1463

Part D. Conducting a Non-Evidentiary Hearing

§ 38.25	Techniques for Conducting a Non-Evidentiary Hearing.	1463
§ 38.26	What the Respondent Should Say When Addressing the Court at the Dispositional Hearing.	1465
§ 38.27	What the Parent Should Say When Addressing the Court.....	1467

Part E. After the Hearing

§ 38.28	Preserving the Right to Appeal.	1467
§ 38.29	Counsel’s Post-Dispositional Role.	1468

Chapter 39
Appeal and Post-Disposition Proceedings..... 1470

§ 39.01	Scope of the Chapter.	1470
§ 39.02	Appellate Review.....	1470

§ 39.02(a)	The Right to Appeal.....	1470
§ 39.02(b)	The Indigent Respondent’s Right to Counsel Upon Appeal; to a Trial Transcript for Use on Appeal; and to Waiver of Appellate Filing Fees.....	1472
§ 39.02(c)	The Need to Move Quickly to Preserve Appellate Remedies; First Steps.....	1472
§ 39.03	Collateral Review.....	1474
§ 39.03(a)	State Postconviction Remedies; Federal Postconviction Relief from Federal Convictions.	1474
§ 39.03(b)	Federal Habeas Corpus.	1477
§ 39.04	Revocation of Probation; Modification and/or Termination of Probationary Conditions.	1479
§ 39.05	Revocation of Parole.	1485
§ 39.06	Extension of a Term of Incarceration.....	1487
§ 39.07	Monitoring Conditions of Confinement; Seeking the Release of a Respondent Who Is Not Receiving Appropriate Treatment.	1488
§ 39.08	Sealing and Expungement of Conviction Records.	1489
Table of Authorities.....		1490
Cases.		1490
Statutes and Court Rules.		1627
Books, Articles, and Other Authorities.		1646
Index of Subjects.		1678